Reading Books

I have many books in my classroom library that I would like to send home with your child over winter break. I will meet with each child and make sure that they have some new books to read over the break. Please know that these are like library books, and I would appreciate that they are returned.

Homework

This will be the last week of homework until January! Keep reading over winter break!!!

Wish List

We are almost all out of glue sticks and wipes. If you are shopping and could pick some up for our class, I would greatly appreciate it.
